The background of the entire poster is a solid blue color. Overlaid on this background are the dark blue silhouettes of seven people standing in a row. From left to right, there is a woman, a man, a woman, a man, a woman, a man, and a woman. They are all facing forward, though some are slightly turned. The title 'romans D'ados' is written across the middle of the poster in a white, stylized font. The word 'romans' is in a lowercase, rounded font, while 'D'ados' is in a larger, more decorative, uppercase font. The letters have a slightly distressed or hand-painted appearance.
